POWDERPUFF

'67

Hand to hand combat and a judo chop now and then helped the almighty (?) Seniors defeat the Juniors in a treacherous duel on the football field. Grace Carroll will be remembered as the lone scorer of the 6-0 PowderPuff Football Game. November 28, 1966, will long be remembered as a total mess !!!

May
you have many happy and all the good things in life. I hope you can bear
not having me around next year. Good Luck

SOPHOMORES BATTLE JUNIORS— POWDERPUFF BASKETBALL '67

Robert,
It's been fun being in the same typing I class with
ya. Good Luck in your SENIOR year. Best wishes throughout the following year.

The sophomore girls challenged their superiors, the junior girls, to the annual Powderpuff Basketball Game, held on March 14.

Attempting to prove their superiority was a failure; the mighty juniors continued their winning streak with a victory of 23 to 12.

The Spartan Marching Band topped off an exciting year with a very popular performance at the Monterey-Seaside Football Game. Appearing before 160,000 people, the band performed at six home football games, Stanford Band Day, Merced Band Review, Chinese New Year's Parade, Seaside City Hall Dedication, and the Memorial Day Parade in San Mateo. Also popular this year was the Spartan Symphonic Band. It performed in the annual Christmas show, toured various schools, and participated in the Arts Festival, the CMEA Music Festival, and the Spring Concert. Fourteen students were chosen for positions in the CMEA Honor Band and Terry Berry, Charles Deese, and Larry Parker were chosen for the highly coveted State Honor Band.

CHORAL GROUPS

The A Cappella Choir, comprised of 40 of the best vocal music students, was seen publicly at the Christmas Concert, Young Artist's Festival, Spring Concert, and Pops Concert, aside from numerous private performances for various clubs on the Peninsula.

Accompanying the choir to many of their engagements were the Boy's Glee and Advanced Girl's Glee. These two choral groups also performed at the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Alisal fell 12-7, Watsonville was edged 14-12 and North Salinas was flattened 21-0 to give Seaside four triumphs.

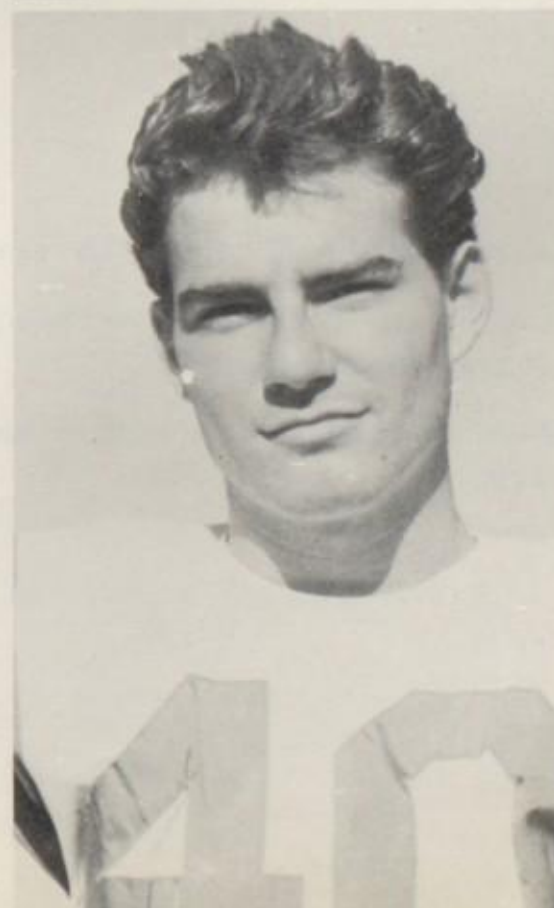

The varsity had a chance to grab a share of the MBL crown if they could have toppled Monterey. The Toredores prevailed in a hard-fought 13-0 win.

Rain threatened, spirit soared, and the Spartans found themselves face to face with the biggest game of the year against rival MHS.

Preparations for this event were made by the Pep Club, the Rally Committee and spirit-minded students.

Viewed throughout campus during Spirit Week '66 were posters and pickets displaying SHS enthusiastic rivalry.

Energetic students were also viewed throughout the week taking part in various sorts of sack races.

The theme of a football stadium with table decorations of megaphones and red and white pom-poms set the mood for the 1966-1967 Homecoming Dance.

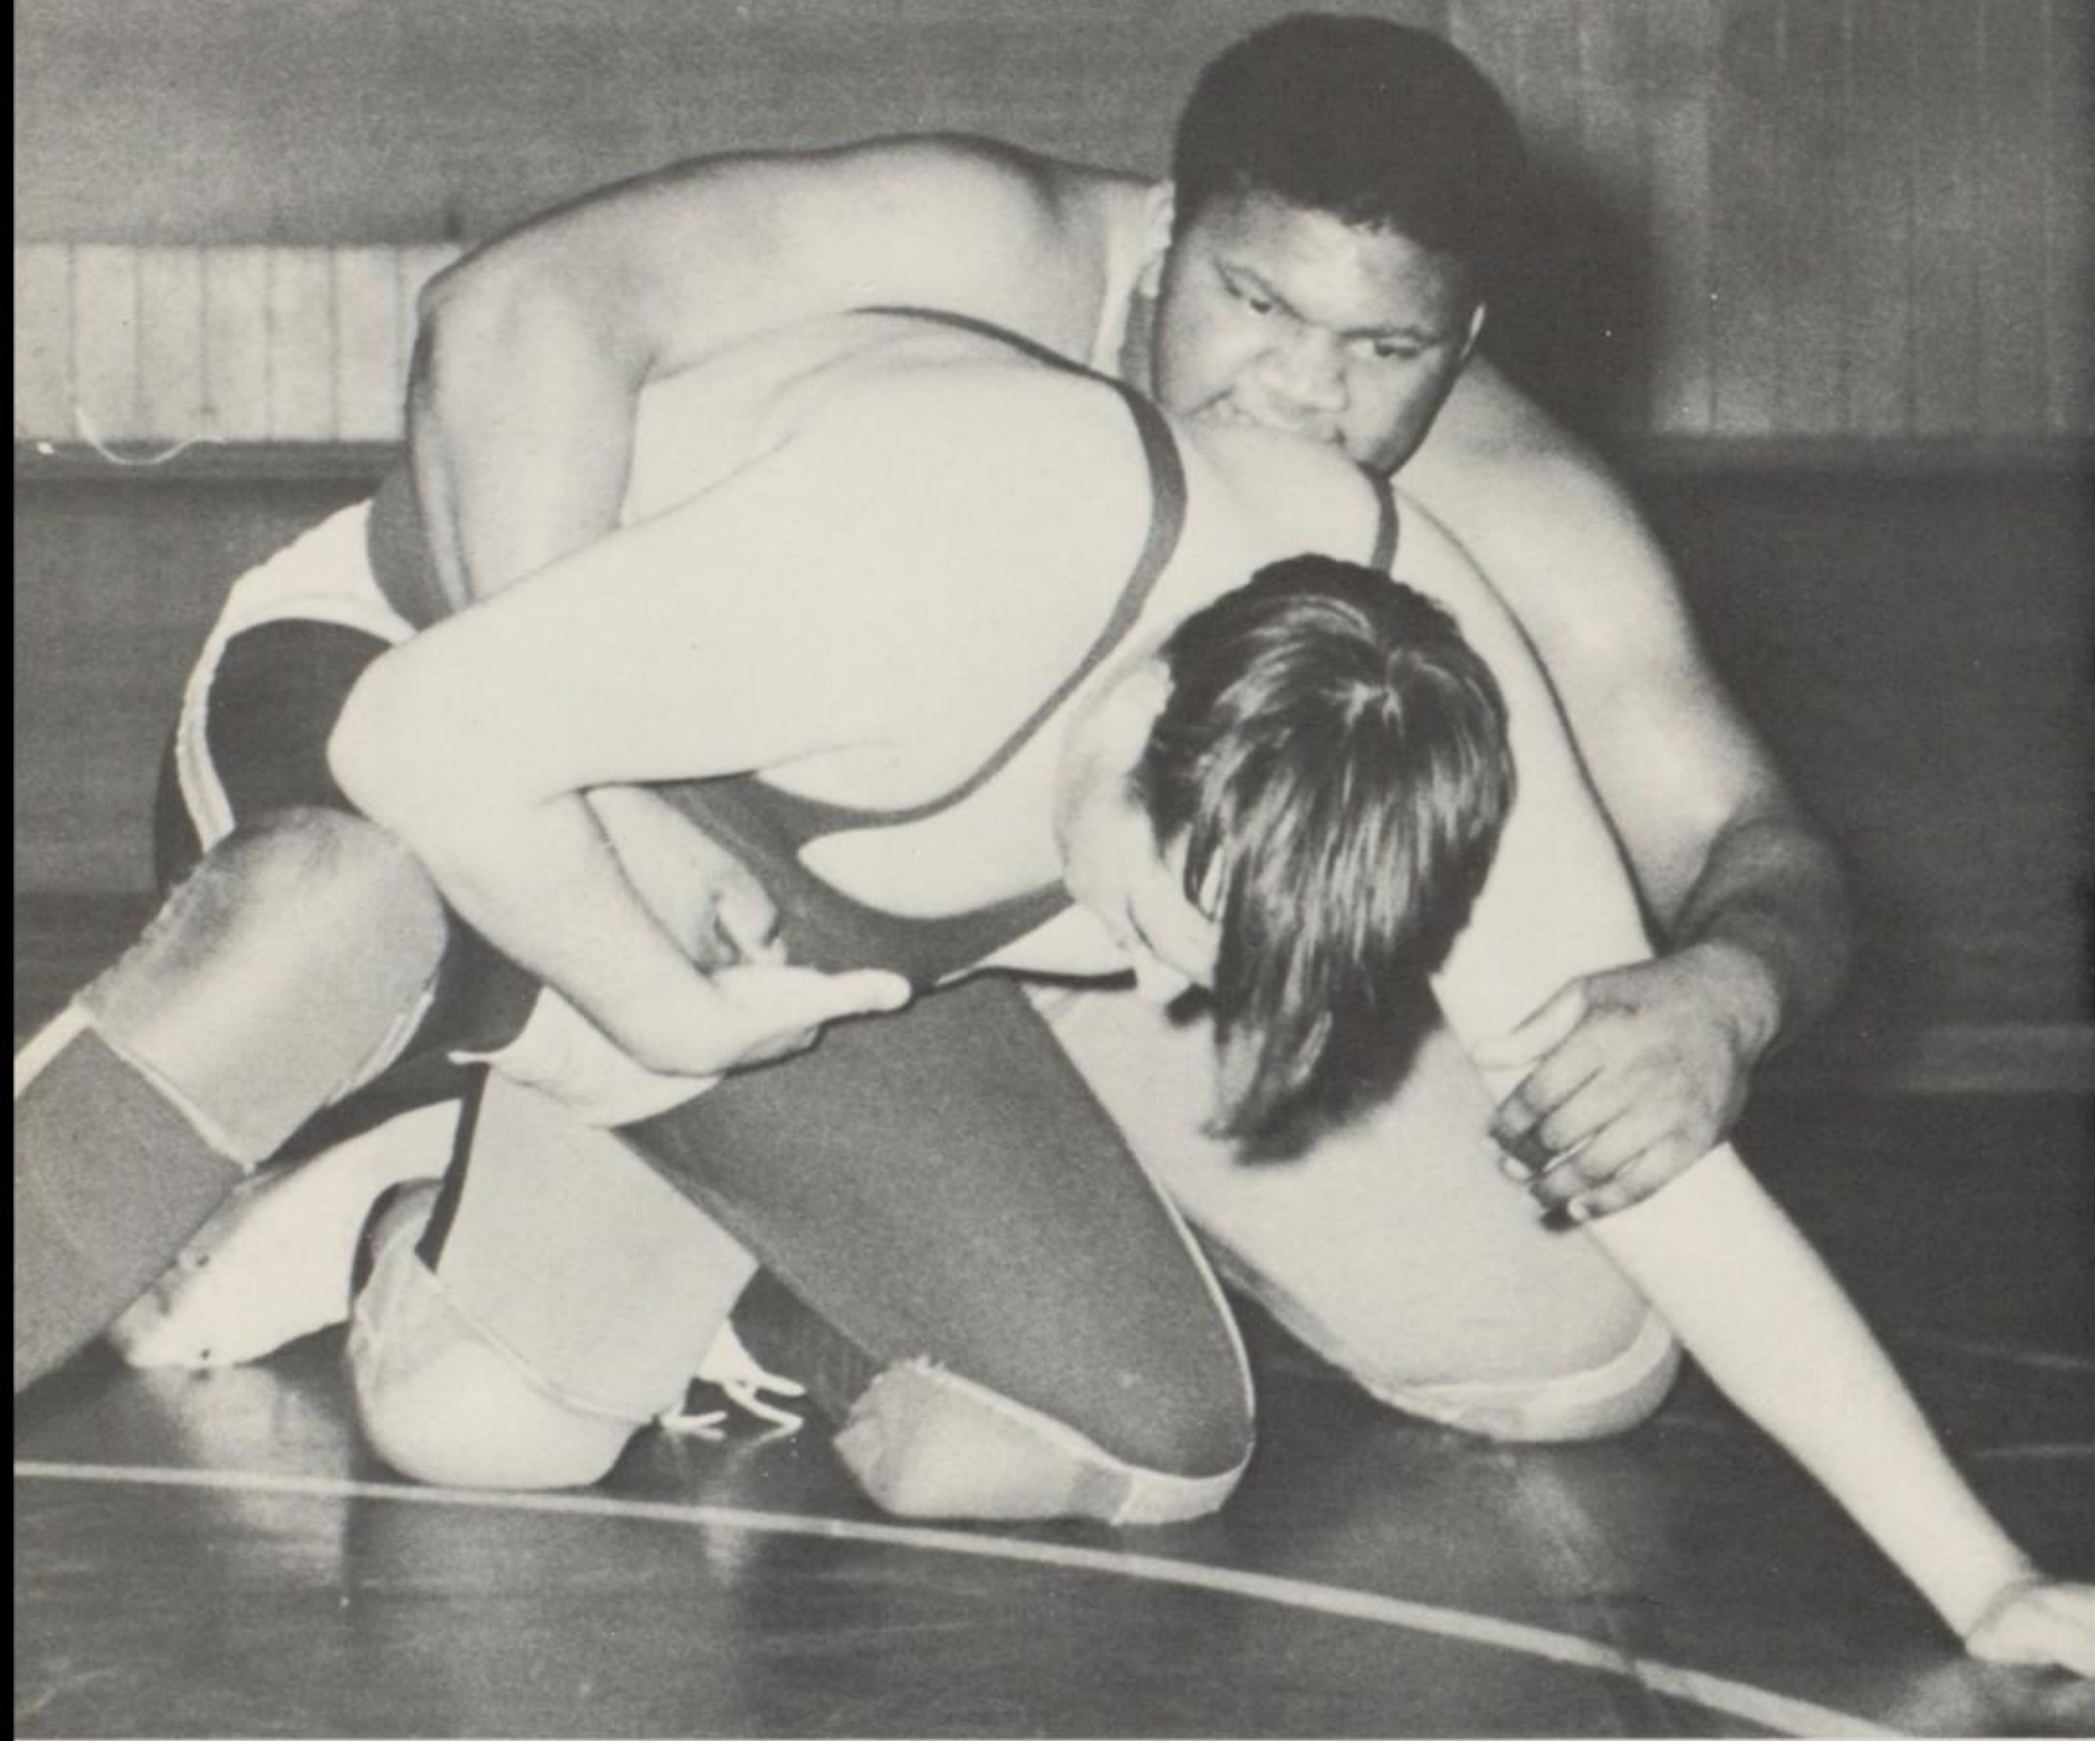

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Laura Sarver as Homecoming Queen.

Crowned as attendants were Grace Carroll, senior; Sarah Elledge, junior; and Jan Watson, sophomore.

Coach Bob Hunter's Wrestling squad was plagued by ineligible players and injuries this year. Despite many setbacks Seaside climbed to sixth place in the talent-loaded Monterey Bay League.

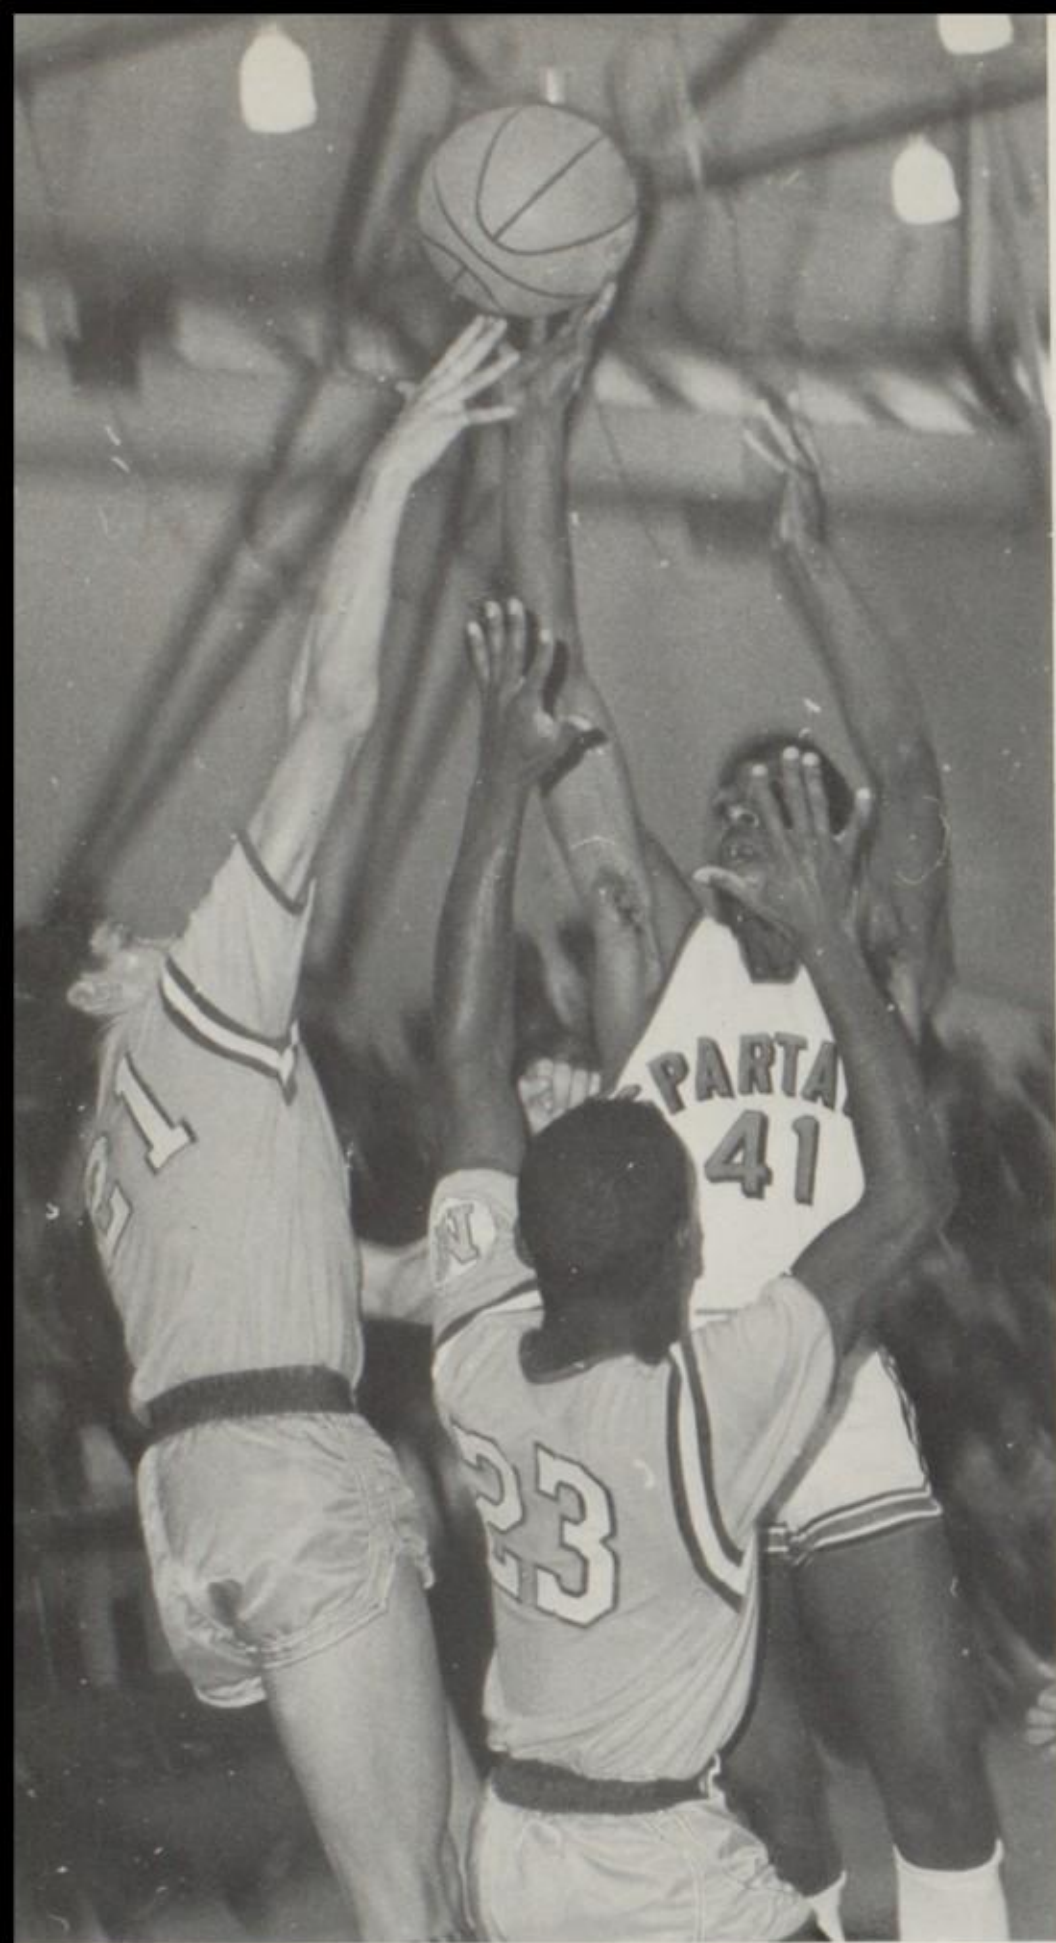

The Spartans had three of the MBL's top wrestlers in Robert Cruz, 112 pounds, sophomore John Schloss, 191 pounds, and massive heavyweight Dennis Welch. All three grapplers earned a trip to the Central Coast Sectionals as a result of their second place finishes.

Assistant Coach Phil Doughty and Coach Hunter were pleased to have John Fairchild (fourth), Richard Sayer (fifth), and Lenny Baymon (fifth) place for Seaside in the final league meet.

Coach Hunter summed up the entire season in one sentence, "Wait 'til next year!"

Seaside, under Coach John Brandlin's leadership, barely missed upsetting some of the league's top teams.

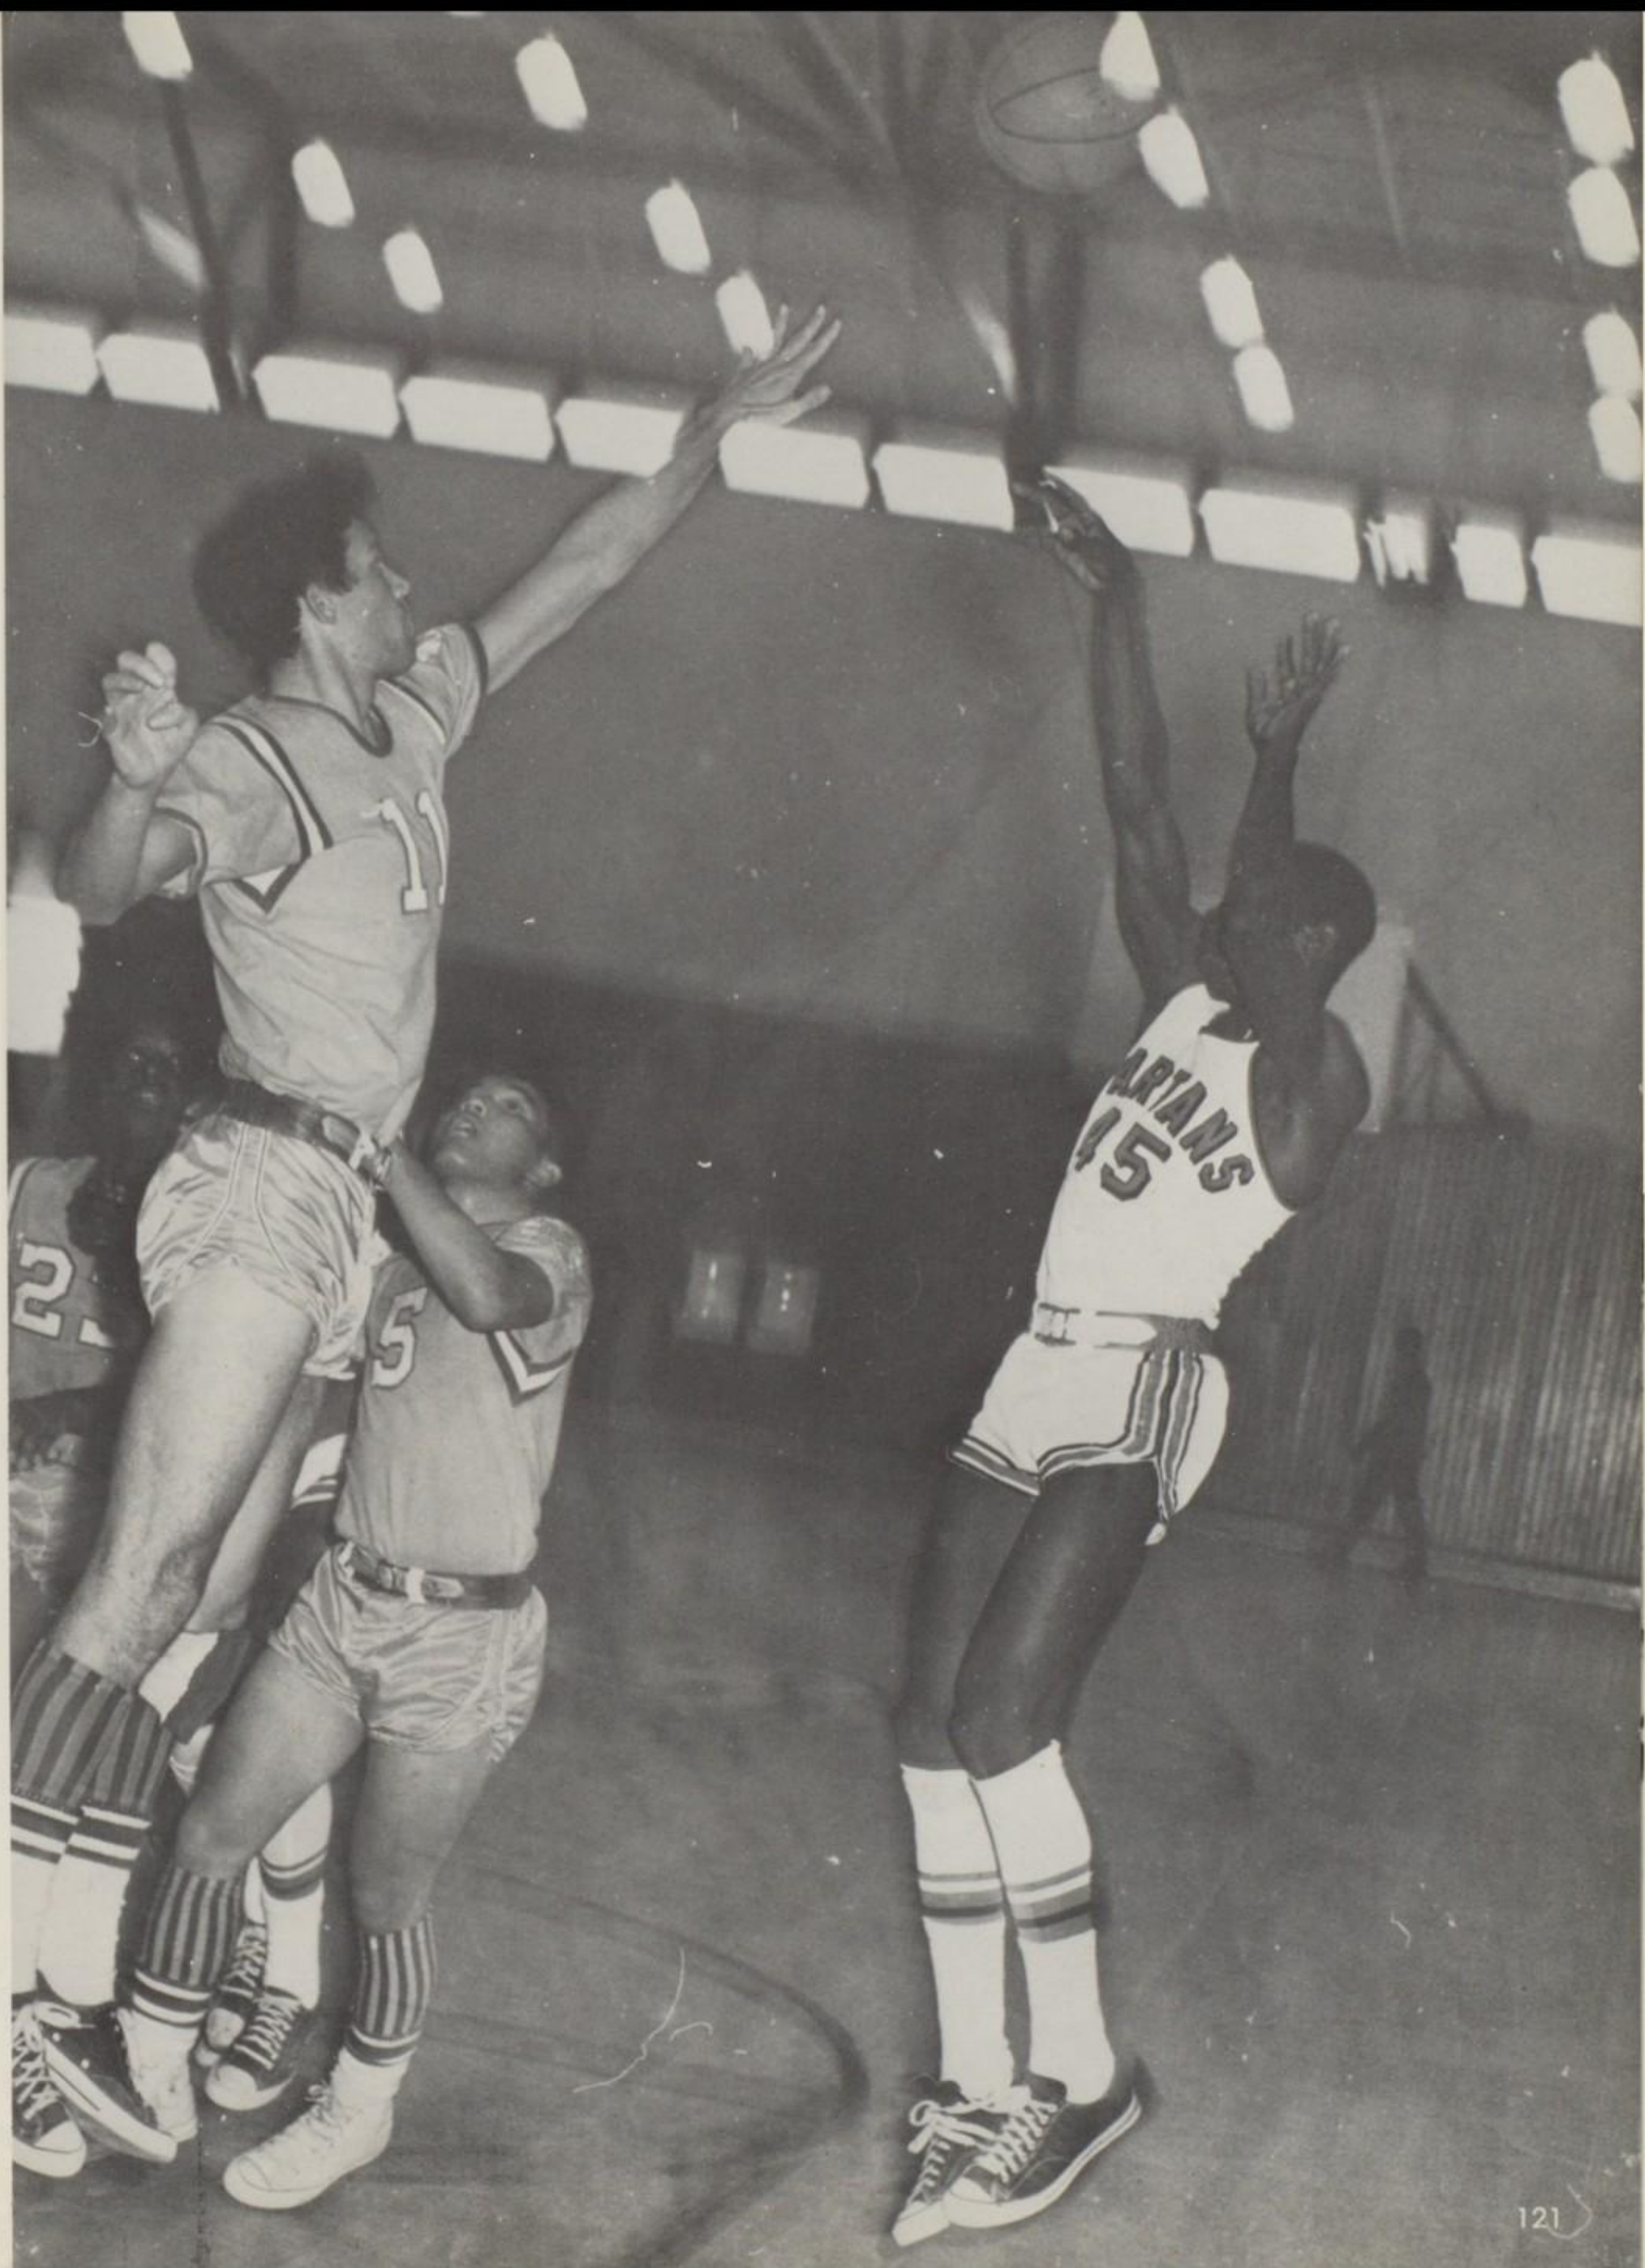

The Spartan attack centered around the shooting of Gary Mitchell and Jerry Vaughn most of the season. Gary Harris came on strong in the final games to establish himself as a jump-shot artist.

Rounding out the starting five were Sophomores Jim Clemons and Larry Jackson.

Coach Dick Melamed's junior varsity squad was blessed with a strong defense and good rebounding this year.

Seaside's JV's were always fighting for every game.

The top players on the squad were Primo Rondez, Ed Morikawa, Al Ott, Lonnie James, and Ray Branch. Harold Danley provided Seaside with one of its most pleasant surprises when he came off the bench to score 15 points and led the Spartans to a 73-71 win over Santa Cruz.

The best thing about this year's squad is that next year they'll move up to varsity.

LIGHTW

The lightweight basketball squad thrived on what Coach Al Hutchko constantly termed, "a good team effort".

Seaside finished the Monterey Bay League season with a 7-7 mark which placed them in the fourth position.

Coach Hutchko's Spartababes barely missed knocking off the first place Santa Cruz Cardinals (13-1) in their final clash, but they succeeded in toppling second place Salinas.

Felix Rosario, Billy Parker, Don Purnell, George Small, Ken Murakoshi, Rudy Castro and Dick Pryor formed the nucleus of the team.

"Stage Door", a highly successful play about the lives of would-be actresses, was presented by the drama department on March 8, 9, and 10.

Major roles were played by Dave Hunt, who portrayed David Kingsley, a handsome middle-aged motion picture producer, Bert Acedo, who played the part of Terry Randall, a talented young woman seeking a career on the stage, and John Mishka, who portrayed the role of Keith Burgess, an unsuccessful playwright who deserted the stage for a career in motion pictures.

Supporting them were Miltie Vega (Judith Canfield), an actress who enjoyed the ups and downs of the stage, Barbara Fohl (Kaye Hamilton), a depressed young woman who took her life to escape her many Crowned as Miss Seaside High was Grace Carroll. Sylvia Razey, senior, Sarah Elledge, junior, and Willa Dieleman, sophomore, were Grace's attending court.

KAT'S MEOW . . .

Flappers, Al Capone, the Charleston, and Twenty-Three Skidoo . . . are some of the memories relived at the Kat's Meow held on March 10.

Highlighting the evening's speak-easy was a full length bar (prohibition was still in effect), a bath tub full of popcorn, and Al

Capone's Birthday cake, a home for flapper pop-outs. Special entertainment was provided by a group of flappers (song-leaders), by Wanda Vincent (who emerged from Al's Cake) and by Miltie Vega (stripper of the Roaring Twenties).
